Kick-off meeting in Hanoi (online), 28 Feb., 2020

WP3: DEVELOPMENT OF A REGIONAL PROFESSIONAL ACADEMIC NETWORK

We will develop an academic network of professionals for enhanced connections, learning and collaborations between universities in Asia and Europe. The network will consist of academic staff and focus on sharing knowledge, experiences and professional capacities on Strategic Environmental Assessment. The WP lead is ULisboa and HCMUNRE.

WP3: DEVELOPMENT OF A REGIONAL ACADEMIC NETWORK

Aim:

- Create an academic network of professionals for enhanced capacity-building on Strategic Environmental Assessment (SEA) in Southeast Asia through improved connections and collaborations, with focus on sharing knowledge, experiences and professional capacities on SEA.

3.1 Use a digital on-line platform for networking

3.2 Develop work plan for establishing and maintaining professional academic network

3.3 Planning, conducting and participating in network events (external and internal network)

3.4 Identify and promote exchange of professional capacities

WP3: DEVELOPMENT OF A REGIONAL ACADEMIC NETWORK

3.1 Use a digital on-line platform for networking (Q4 2019 – Q2 2020)

A networking platform will be established online, using the digital platform established in WP 7 to initiate, and stimulate, ongoing interactions and start building channels, and habits, of communication. The platform will include a) both academic and professional sections namely SEA curricula, MSc and PhD thesis, b) publications as well as real SEA national and international case-studies to illustrate professional experiences.

3.2 Develop work plan for establishing and maintaining professional academic network (Q4 2019 – Q1 2020)

The work plan of the professional academic network will identify both activities and responsibilities. The platform should also host initiatives to bring people together such as webinars, online courses, data bases with lecturing material (slides, exercises, examples), and others. The workplan will include a time frame and responsibilities of each participant organizations, including the coordination to be shared in turns.

3.3 Planning, conducting and participating in network events (external and internal network) (Q1 2020 – Q2 2022)

Both internal and external networks will coexist and complement each other, each creating different events to keep it active. These events will be led by task teams to ensure dynamics and diversity of engagement.

3.4 Identify and promote exchange of professional capacities (Q2 2020 – Q4 2021)

Host initiatives to promote and exchange professional activities such as visiting lecturers, student exchange program, internship, seminars, and workshops taking place both in Asian as well as in European countries involved.
